INTRODUCTION: SCORING FORMS

CONTENTS AND ORGANIZATION

General Scoring Forms are provided at the beginning of this section and are followed by the Individual Offense Reference Sheets. The General Scoring Forms are categorized according to the twelve types of offender scoring rules: Burglary 1; Residential Burglary and Burglary 2; Escape - Scoring Rule 1; Escape - Scoring Rule 2; Felony Traffic; Nonviolent; Nonviolent Sex; Serious Violent; Serious Violent Sex (Rape 1); Violent; Drug; and Violent Sex. Table 5, Offense Scoring Categories (page III-6), displays the crimes in each of these categories. The offenses are also listed on the top of each scoring form. The Individual Offense Reference Sheets are arranged alphabetically. The individual sheets for controlled substances, imitation controlled substances and legend drug crimes are grouped together. Indexes are provided for each group of forms. Please note that the General Scoring Forms do not present sentencing option eligibility (e.g., work release, work ethic camp). Please refer to Individual Offense Reference Sheets for sentencing options.

The 1990 Legislature created a new finding for crimes committed with sexual motivation effective for crimes committed on or after July 1, 1990. The definition of sex offenses was also amended so that crimes with a sexual motivation finding are defined and scored as sex offenses. On the reverse side of most General Scoring Forms is a corresponding version for offenses in that category with a sexual motivation finding.

2000 LEGISLATIVE OVERVIEW

The 2000 Legislature enacted a small number of amendments to the Sentencing Reform Act (SRA) and related statutes. Included among the changes are the following:

Reorganization of Sections of the SRA (effective July 2001)

In Senate Bill 6223, the Legislature clarified the meaning of some terms, approved technical corrections and reorganized sections of the SRA. All changes were intended to make the SRA more user friendly. As such, a major amendment was made to RCW 9.94A.120 Sentences, a section which had been amended previously either by the Legislature or by initiative each year since its original enactment in 1981.

Many of the subsections of 9.94A.120 were repealed and rewritten as new Code sections. Rather than being grouped with all other sentences, the SRA's organization now sets forth the rules for Sentencing Alternatives (First-time Offender Waiver, Drug Offender Sentencing Alternative and Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative) in new sections. New sections dealing with Persistent Offenders, Mandatory Minimum Terms, Community Custody and Sex Offender Treatment have also been created.

Though this bill resulted in quite extensive changes to the Act, all of the amendments were technical and did not change substantive matters. These technical changes become effective July 1, 2001.

Presence of a Child

The Legislature, in Senate bill 6260, created a new provision for sentencing in cases involving the manufacture of methamphetamine or possession of ephedrine or pseudoephedrine. In such cases, when the state alleges and proves beyond a reasonable doubt that a person under the age of eighteen was present, the court or the jury, by special verdict, is required to make a specific finding of the presence of a minor. Upon such a finding, an additional twenty-four months is added to the standard sentence. See RCW 9.94A.310(6).

Protection Order Violation

Senate Bill 6400 amends RCW 9.94A.320, Table 2, Crimes Included in Each Seriousness Level, by combining three separate domestic violence violations into one felony offense labeled “Domestic Violence Court Order Violation.” The new combined offense is still contained in Level V in the seriousness table. This new offense is also included in the “Crimes Against Persons” category as set forth in RCW 9.94A.440.

The bill, which is effective July 1, 2000, also expands the reach of protection orders to include a prohibition against a respondent knowingly coming within or knowingly remaining within a specified distance from a location specified in the order. This additional prohibition applies to all types of domestic violence protection orders.

Changes to Specific Offenses

The 2000 Regular Session of the Legislature enacted various laws affecting specific felonies sentenced under the Sentencing Reform Act. These changes created new felonies and changed the definitions of some offenses. These changes, including effective dates, are summarized in Table 4 in Section III of this manual.

- * If no prior sex offense conviction and sentence is less than eleven years, the Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative is an option.
- * If Drug Offender Sentencing Alternative (DOSA) eligible: see DOSA form for alternative sentence on page III-16.
-  The Supreme Court clarified that solicitations to commit violations of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act (RCW 69.50) are not "drug offenses" and are not subject to the multiple "scoring" requirement for drug offenses, under RCW 9.94A.360, or to the community placement requirement for drug offenses, under RCW 9.94A.120(9)(a). See In re Hopkins, 137 Wn.2d 897 (1999).

SENTENCE RANGES FOR ANTICIPATORY DRUG OFFENSES

The appropriate sentence ranges for anticipatory offenses (attempts, solicitations, and conspiracies) involving violations of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act (VUCSA) have been clarified through a series of court decisions and legislative actions. Table 6 presents the current status of statute and case law on appropriate sentence ranges for anticipatory violations of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act.

Table 6. Sentence Ranges for Anticipatory Drug Offenses

	SENTENCE RANGE	STATUTE
Attempt Delivery	Unranked (0 to 12)	RCW 69.50.407
Possession	Unranked (0 to 12)	RCW 69.50.407
Solicitation* Delivery	75% of Standard Range	RCW 9A.28.030
Possession	75% of Standard Range	RCW 9A.28.030
Conspiracy Delivery	Unranked (0 to 12)	RCW 69.50.407
Possession	Unranked (0 to 12)	RCW 69.50.407

*Solicitations drop one class from the underlying offense (e.g., a solicitation to commit a Class B felony is a Class C felony). Solicitations to commit Class C felonies are gross misdemeanors.

RELEVANT STATUTES

RCW 9A.28.020 Criminal attempt. (1) A person is guilty of an attempt to commit crime if, with intent to commit a specific crime, he does any act which is a substantial step toward the commission of that crime.

(2) If the conduct in which a person engages otherwise constitutes an attempt to commit a crime, it is no defense to a prosecution of such attempt that the crime charged to have been attempted was, under the attendant circumstances, factually or legally impossible of commission.

(3) An attempt to commit a crime is a:

(a) Class A felony when the crime attempted is murder in the first degree, murder in the first , or arson in the first degree,

(b) Class B felony when the crime attempted is a Class A felony other than murder in the first degree or arson in the first degree,

(c) Class C felony when the crime attempted is a Class B felony,

(d) Gross misdemeanor when the crime attempted is a Class C felony,

(e) Misdemeanor when the crime attempted is a gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor.

RCW 9A.28.030 Criminal solicitation. (1) A person is guilty of criminal solicitation when, with intent to promote or facilitate the commission of a crime, he offers to give or gives money or other thing of value to another to engage in specific conduct which would constitute such crime or which would establish complicity of such other person in its commission or attempted commission had such crime been attempted or committed.

(2) Criminal solicitation shall be punished in the same manner as criminal attempt under RCW 9A.28.020.

RCW 9A.28.040 Criminal conspiracy. (1) A person is guilty of criminal conspiracy when, with intent that conduct constituting a crime be performed, he agrees with one or more persons to engage in or cause the performance of such conduct, and any one of them takes a substantial step in pursuance of such agreement.

(2) It shall not be a defense to criminal conspiracy that the person or persons with whom the accused is alleged to have conspired:

- (a) Has not been prosecuted or convicted, or
- (b) Has been convicted of a different offense, or
- (c) Is not amenable to justice, or
- (d) Has been acquitted, or
- (e) Lacked the capacity to commit an offense.

(3) Criminal conspiracy is a:

- (a) Class A felony when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is murder in the first degree,
- (b) Class B felony when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is a Class A felony other than murder in the first degree,
- (c) Class C felony when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is a Class B felony,
- (d) Gross misdemeanor when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is a Class C felony,
- (e) Misdemeanor when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is a gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor.

RCW 9.94A.410 Anticipatory offenses. For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

In calculating an offender score, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for the completed offense. When these convictions are used as criminal history, score them the same as a completed crime.

RCW 69.50.101(f) “Deliver” or “delivery” means the actual or constructive transfer from one person to another of a controlled substance, whether or not there is an agency relationship.

RCW 69.50.407 Conspiracy. Any person who attempts or conspires to commit any offense defined in this chapter is punishable by imprisonment or fine or both which may not exceed the maximum punishment prescribed for the offense, the commission of which was the object of the attempt or conspiracy.
